Brings Beauty while you sleep

Sooths, softens and youthifies the skin. Among women of wealth who buy wisely rather than rashly, the popularity of this new Pompeian product is truly remarkable. So white, so smooth, so beneficial.

Pompeian Night Cream is the result of 14 years experience of the makers of Pompeian Massage Cream. In selecting a face cream, a high price or a fancy box seems to solve the problem for far too many women. Pompeian Night Cream is fairly priced because it is made and sold in large quantities.

It is really different. Not too dry, not too oily. It is just right. Let Pompeian Night Cream bring you a velvety youthful skin while you sleep. Overcomes the effects of motoring and any exposure to heat, cold or wind.

Sold at 35,000 toilet goods counters from Maine to California. Travelers' tubes, 25c. Jars, 35c. and 75c. Try it tonight.

"Sleeve-Valve Motor"

The Coupe With Noiseless Motor

$1500
f. o. b. Toledo

The Willys-Knight Coupe is by far the most desirable closed car of the season.

The famous Knight type motor is quiet and vibrationless because it has sleeve valves. Standing right next to the hood one can scarcely tell whether or not it is running.

Thus you get the absolute quietness of an electric plus the usefulness, service and unlimited mileage of a high-powered gasoline automobile.

The production of this model is limited. Orders placed immediately will receive preference.

Development

with the ordinary photographer has too often meant merely the mechanical process employed in the making of his pictures. With Purdy Photograph Portraits development has always meant progress in the "art" of photography—the actuation that aspires to make superior the product of the craft. Skill and experience are the best means to this attainment. Purdy Photograph Portraits are constant evidence of this skill and experience.

GRIFFIN FURS AND FUR COATS FOR MEN and WOMEN

We have the largest stock of Furs and Fur Coats at moderate prices this season that we have ever shown.

We contracted for our furs last spring when prices were the lowest that we had seen them for years. These were all delivered to us in the late summer. Since we received our furs the prices have advanced from 50 to 100 per cent. We are now selling Our Furs at Retail for less than we could purchase them at wholesale today.

This is a Fur Year when it will pay you to look around before you buy.

We specialize in Men's and Women's Raccoon Coats

Quality COUNTS in nothing so much as FURS. Furs of Quality are different.

One does not buy Furs often. The kind we sell last a lifetime.

Our Reputation back of Furs counts in their wear.

REMEMBER—Cost is not what you pay, but what you get in VALUE for your money.

Come in and look them over; there's no obligation to buy.

It's a Pleasure to Show Them.

WILLIAM GILLETTE

In His Famous Successes

William Gillette, always a great favorite with Boston audiences, comes to the Hollis Street Theatre on December 6 for a three weeks' engagement. The bill for the first week will be "Sherlock Holmes." The second week, beginning Monday night, December 13, he will appear in "Secret Service." The bills for the third week will be announced later. Mr. Gillette will not appear anywhere else in New England and these will be his final Boston appearances in his two famous plays.

Mr. Gillette was playing "Secret Service" on tour in California when he received a wire from Charles Frohman that told him the manager's efforts to secure from Sir A. Conan Doyle permission to make a play around Sherlock Holmes, the wonderful detective the novelist had created, had been successful. Mr. Gillette immediately engaged another actor to play his part in "Secret Service" and disappeared. Less than a month later he returned to New York and handed the manager the completed play. It was produced at the Garrick Theatre, New York, in the autumn of 1899. Mr. Gillette himself impersonated the great detective and his success in the role was phenomenal. Ever since "William Gillette" and "Sherlock Holmes" have been synonyms in the vocabulary of American theatregoers. Later on he presented the play in England with equal success.

As the basis for his plot, the playwright employed "a hitherto unpublished episode in the career of the great detective, showing his connection with the strange case of Miss Faulkner." It was a tale full of thrills and hair-breadth escapes and the critics did not hesitate to call it "the greatest detective play." That its scenes have lost none of their power to excite the imagination is testified to by the thousands who have been attending the performances of the play given by Mr. Gillette at the Empire Theatre, New York, this autumn.

The play will be given here with the same company that has been supporting the star in New York, which includes Helen Freeman, Marion Abbott, Grace Reals, Edward Fielding, Joseph Brennan, Edwin Mordant, Stuart Fox and H. G. Bates.

FRENCH Instruction

Can you read French but find it Difficult to understand it when spoken?

Lessons Given to Ladies Only

Did you ever consider that the right sort of practice would enable you to readily understand it, and that then you would have confidence to enter into conversation at any time? I can teach you to become proficient in conversation. I desire to instruct only those who already know a little French, but cannot readily understand it when spoken. By my method you become so accustomed to sounds, the way of phrasing and the individualisms of expression, that you soon become adept in the art of conversing. Two or three hours each week will enable you to do this. No classes. I teach you individually in an effective way that makes your lessons a pleasure. I give lessons to ladies only. MLLE. RIKER-JAYNES

THE PUBLIC APPRECIATE IT

Few landmarks have been so sorely missed by the public as the various clocks which were removed by order of the city, presumably because they blocked the sidewalks. Realizing this "void," the International Trust Co., with characteristic enterprise has placed on the front of its Summer Street Branch a clock with a three-and-a-half foot dial, controlled by electricity and guaranteed to be accurate. It really is surprising what a large "territory" this clock serves from its present location. The dial is illuminated at night, and bears across its face in very modest letters the words "International Trust Company." It is proving a veritable boon to thousands of South Station commuters and the company is to be congratulated both on service it is rendering and on the good taste displayed in the selection, location and arrangement of the clock.

—(Reprinted from Banker & Tradesman, Nov. 13, 1915.)

A further evidence that the International Trust Co. is rendering a valuable and satisfactory service to the public is shown by its rapidly increasing deposits which on the date of the last official call compared as follows:

"I simply couldn't do without the Victrola we got at Steinert's. It's the best kind of company when I'm alone, and it's so nice any time for dancing.

"Then John is so enthusiastic about the records by Caruso and McCormack and the other great artists, he always plays the Victrola evenings after dinner.

"You and Alice certainly ought to have a Victrola."

ENLARGEMENTS BIG PICTURES from LITTLE FILMS

What is more pleasing than a permanently framed enlargement made from a snapshot of baby, your favorite vacation spot, your favorite pet, not to say your close, personal friends.

Popular photography has made big progress recently and notable is the high development of the art of making Big Pictures from Little Films.

We specialize on enlargements with every new device that insures perfect work. Our enlarging business is growing because people realize our possibilities in making beautiful pictures from small films.

This car will be signed “Tremont Street to Boylston Street, Theatre Car,” and will run week nights during the present theatrical season, provided the traffic demands it.

TO LADY PATRONS—The established rule at the Hollis St. Theatre requiring ladies to remove their hats, bonnets or other head-dress while witnessing the performance applies to all parts of the auditorium, including the boxes and loges. It is essential to the comfort and convenience of our patrons in general that this rule be strictly enforced.

Ladies who are unwilling or unable to conform to the rule are earnestly requested to leave the theatre without delay, and to receive the price of their tickets at the Box Office.

What is a Good Dentifrice?

ONE that will cleanse your mouth and teeth thoroughly, keep dental work in excellent condition, give to the teeth their natural lustre and leave the mouth cool and refreshed. This must be accomplished without injurious results.

BURRILL'S TOOTH POWDER TOOTH PASTE

Both do this. They are prepared carefully and accurately.

Investigate. Ask those who use BURRILL'S. You will find this statement conservative.
